

Tracy Christen Reimann, Esq.

Tracy Christen Reimann, Esq. is in private practice in Somers, New York. Ms. Reimann counsels clients in estate planning, business succession planning and elder care planning matters. She is skilled in the drafting, structuring, executing and funding of a wide range of estate planning vehicles such as qualified personal residence trusts, life insurance trusts, limited liability companies, family limited partnership agreements, irrevocable income only trusts and revocable trusts. Ms. Reimann prepares and executes wills, health care proxies, living wills and durable powers of attorney, does extensive tax planning and research for a diverse clientele as well as formulates Medicaid/asset preservation plans. She does a considerable amount of litigation in the Surrogates Courts and the Guardianship Courts for the State of New York and New Jersey. Additionally, she prepares federal and state estate and gift tax returns. Ms. Reimann is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, the State of New York, and the State of New Jersey. She is an Adjunct Professor of Law at New York Law School. She has lectured to professional groups on her areas of practice. She earned her B.A. degree, summa cum laude, from Long Island University, her J.D. degree from Brooklyn Law School and her LL.M. degree, in taxation, from New York University, School of Law. Ms. Reimann is a member of numerous professional and civic organizations.

She resides in the Town of Somers with her husband and their four children.